Un vino joven elaborado siguiendo procesos totalmente naturales tanto en bodega como en viña, de ahí su clasificación como vino orgánico. Jumilla ha probado ser un enclave privilegiado que reúne todas las condiciones climatológicas y de suelo para llevar a cabo este tipo de agricultura.

Organic is a young red wine it is not aged in oak but subject to a series of natural processes, both in the vineyard and the bodega, which guarantee its classification as an organic wine. Thanks to its climate and the excellent quality of its soils, Jumilla has proved to be the perfect place in which to carry out organic farming.
